DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- Species I drawn to Figs. 1-5
- Species II drawn to Figs. 6-8
- Species III drawn to Figs. 9
- Species IV drawn to Fig. 10
- Species V drawn to Figs. 11 and 12
- Species VI drawn to Figs. 13 and 14
- Species VII drawn to Fig. 15
- Species VIII drawn to Figs. 16-19
- Species IX drawn to Figs. 20-24
- Species X drawn to Figs. 25-27

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 2851

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 1-3 appear drawn to Species I, II, V-IX.

Claim 4 appears drawn to Species V.

Claims 5 and 6 appear to be drawn to Species VI and VII.

Claims 7 and 8 appear to be drawn only to species VII.

Claim 9 appears drawn to Species VIII.

Claim 10 appears drawn to Species IX.

Claim 11 appears drawn to Species X

Claim 12 appears drawn to Species I, II, and V-IX.

The following claim(s) are generic: Claims 1-3 and 12 appear to be generic to Species I, II and V-IX. No claim appears to be generic to all species.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Numerous technical features are disclosed. 1) Use of the only upper portion of the image for feature determination. 2) Correction of roll by controlling the camera optical system. 3) Correction of roll by altering the image data. 4) Image motion detection to control the camera pan/tilt mechanism. 5) Image motion detection corrected by correcting the image data. 6) Correction of camera iris control based on backlight detection. 7) Camera attitude detection to determine the upper portion of the image. 8) Synthesizing image roll amount from two cameras to correct the image from each camera and synthesizing the two images. 9) If the roll amount of two cameras meet a predetermined condition, roll amount corrected images from the two cameras are synthesized. 10) Roll amount detected from a first camera is used to correct the image from a second camera. The claims are drawn to different ones of the above listed technical features, or combinations thereof.

Art Unit: 2851

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
